REVENUE CYCLE EDUCATION

Cost-effective staff development from the leader in revenue cycle education.

Did you know by improving staff knowledge you'll see greater revenue? Clients say over and over Litmos Healthcare Division helped their healthcare facility increase staff productivity and revenue. Staff development can be costly and hard to track, but our online education program is cost-effective and easy to manage. Choose the training option that's right for your needs. It's a great basis for incentives and raises, and training is certified by AAHAM and NAHAM.

Option 1: Revenue Cycle Career Ladder and Certification Program

This program is ideal for organizations where roles are blended and you'd like employees to be knowledgeable in all areas of the revenue cycle. Start employees in 101 level, certify their knowledge, and then move them up to 201 and 301. A great basis for incentives and raises, as it results in proven financial outcomes. Courses are certified by both NAHAM and AAHAM for Continuing Education Credits (CEU).

Option 2: Role-Based Curriculum Path

This all-new program is designed for organizations where roles are more clearly defined in the Frontline, Middleline, and Backline roles. Designed as a three-year curriculum, each role takes a unique path through our online Revenue Cycle education library. There are eleven paths which will meet or exceed your needs for personalized education.

Option 3: Unique Situation? Use our Experts to Design a Curriculum Just for You

Not sure these are the right programs for your organization? Work with one of our revenue cycle experts to design a custom curriculum just for your organization and its specific needs. Our content experts can create the curriculum path exactly as you need it.
